

Course Ceramics

Instructor Bob Campbell

Summary This class is an exploration in functional ware using slabs of clay. Some molds will be used as well.

Course details Topics will include design and function, techniques of construction and various approaches to decoration. Possible projects include plates, platters, bowls, serving dishes and vases.

Instructor bio Bob Campbell works in clay; leather and metal. Bob has a studio in the Pier 21 Arts Annex and some of his work can be seen at bobcampbellstudios.com. He is a juried member of the NS Designer Craft Council; has participated in many craft markets, and exhibits regularly in various galleries. A graduate of NSCAD in ceramics, he studied with Alice Hagen, Homer Lord, and Walter Ostrom. Recent notable commissions include a leather presentation from Parks Canada for Prince William and Kate, and a leather binder for the captain of HMCS Halifax.

Class Dates and Times Saturdays 2:00 pm to 5:00 pm 3 weeks please call (902)220-2695 for details

Class Price $ 74.99 + HST
Required materials supplied and firing fee of $ 25.00