

Class            Leather Craft

Instructor      Bob Campbell

Summary        This class will introduce students to various types of leather and methods of construction.

Course Details  Topics will include tooling carving and stamping, lacing, stitching and braiding, fasteners, finish and colour. Projects choice include a change purse, wallet and belt, and other large projects are also available.

Instructor bio  Bob Campbell works in clay; leather and metal. Bob has a studio in the Pier 21 Arts Annex and some of his work can be seen at bobcampbellstudios.com. He is a juried member of the NS Designer Craft Council; has participated in many craft markets, and exhibits regularly in various galleries. A graduate of NSCAD in ceramics, he studied with Alice Hagen, Homer Lord, and Walter Ostrom. Recent notable commissions include a leather presentation from Parks Canada for Prince William and Kate, and a leather binder for the captain of HMCS Halifax.

Class Dates and Times   Wednesday 6:00 pm to 9:00 pm            2 weeks   January 14th and 21st

Class Price       $ 59.99 + HST
Additional materials supplied due to the instructor based on usage
Pre-registration is mandatory        www.creationstationnetwork.ca to arrange alternate payment options please contact:
judy@creationstationnetwork.ca    or (902)220-2695